Oh, My Back!

That's a common expression and has a world of meaning. How much suffering is summed up in it.

The singular thing about it is, that pain in the back is occasioned by so many things. May be caused by kidney disease, liver complaint, consumption, cold, rheumatism, dyspepsia, overwork, nervous debility, &c.

Whatever the cause, don't neglect it. Something is wrong and needs prompt attention. No medicine has yet been discovered that will so quickly and surely cure such diseases as BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and it does this by commencing at the foundation, and making the blood pure and rich.

Wm. P. Marshall, of Logansport, Indiana, writes: "My wife has for many years been troubled from pain in her back and general debility incident to her sex. She has taken one bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters, and I can truthfully say that she has been so much benefited that she pronounces it the only remedy of many medicines she has tried."

Leading physicians and clergymen use and recommend BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It has cured others suffering as you are, and it will cure you.

On his flat lap—the baby.
How to live long—never be short.
A movement on foot—trimming a corn.

The creme de la creme of society sours on many aspiring people.
Policemen are not fond of a boiled dinner—too many beats in it.

To save a dollar is the easiest thing in the world—don't spend it.
The man who scissors off coupons is the genuine "revenue cutter."

The easiest way to "put up" a stove is to send it to the pawnbroker's.

Diamonds are now "common." At last editors find it paste to be stylish.

Bismarck is said to look like a dollar store when he gets all his decorations on.

Josh Billings says: "Next to a clear conscience for solid comfort comes an old shoe."

Complacent lady (after buying some esthetic wares)—I'm growing quite an atheist.

The man who pretends to hate a pun is the fellow who couldn't perpetrate one to save his neck.

A fond father says he sweetens his corrective discipline by whipping his boy with sugar cane.

Although Sankey has often been moody, it is plain that Moody can never be Sankey.

If you want to find out whether a woman is a true lady or not, just step on the train of her best dress.

A New Jersey man has patented a stove that explodes at 10 o'clock at night. He has four daughters.

It seems that the officers of the Jeannette were not on friendly terms, even after the ice was broken.

On a bill of fare in a restaurant of Rio Janeiro is a dish called "Aristu." It is intended for Irish stew.

"The art that conceals art," as the thief remarked when he slid an oil painting under his coat.

An uptown man is teaching his only son to play the violin, because he believes "there's music in the heir."

A soft answer may turn away wrath, but it is far safer to trust to the legs in case the other party is real mad.

The Popular Science Monthly asks, "What are crowds?" The science of love says the third party is a large crowd.

"I aim to tell the truth." "Yes," interrupted an acquaintance; "and you are probably the worst shot in America."

"How can I expand my chest?" asked a stinging fellow of a physician. "By carrying a larger heart in it," was the reply.

"Botanist" asks: "Is the cereus the most fragrant plant that grows?" We are not positive, but we think the Latin name is "onion."

Herbert Spencer says the Americans don't know how to grumble. He evidently never joined a big congregation going home after a long sermon.

A little gypsy girl in Somerville was asked by her pastor why the lions did not eat up Daniel. She replied: "I guess God told the lions that Daniel was not good to eat."

A St. Louis man has had sixteen attacks of delirium tremens, which proves him to be a man of means. Not everybody is able to buy that amount of luxury.

What Physicians Say.
SAN LEANDRO, Cal.—Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.—Dear Sir: I have employed your "Pleasant Purgative Pellets" in my practice for the last four years. I now use no other alternative or cathartic medicines in all chronic derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels. I know of nothing that equals them.

MONEY IN HOPS.

The San Francisco Exchange says: Those who held Con. Virginia and California at low figures just before the bonanza excitement did not make their fortunes much more rapidly than the hop farmers of California during the year that is drawing to a close. Yet little has been said about the great commercial event except in the strictly commercial papers, though hops were the king-pin, and may reign again at something approaching the top figures before the boom is over. The great advance was due to a rapidly increasing demand and a suddenly diminished supply. The hop crop in Europe was a total failure. The vines were attacked by an insect pest, and the wet weather brought mildew. In New York the crop was a fourth less, and in Michigan and Wisconsin hardly up to the average. This is the only State where a full crop was produced. Here we have raised a full average of 2,000 pounds to the acre, and the net profits of the vines has been from $1,000 to $1,500 an acre.

There is one man in Sonoma valley who has cleared this year $10,000 from less than 100 acres. Now in Napa and Sonoma valleys thousands of acres are being planted in hops. The world will take all the hops we can raise. Mr. Adolph Busch, a prominent St. Louis brewer, said the other day that he looked upon California as the coming hop-producing country of the world. San Francisco Post: A morning paper endeavors to discourage hop growing in this State by asserting that the industry is unprofitable and the hops inferior to Eastern and European hops. We are informed by persons of long practical experience in hop growing that there is a good margin of profit in hops at fifteen cents per pound. When we reflect that a number of growers have realized from 45 cents to $1.05 for their crops this season, we can see that there must be money in hops.

"WOMAN."

What Mark Twain Knows About the Other Sex.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.

The seventeenth annual dinner of the New England Society took place at Delmonico's this evening. Josiah M. Fisher presided. Among those on the platform were General Grant, Major Grace, Judge Lawrence, Rev. Arthur Brooks, Chauncey M. Depew and Governor Bigelow of Connecticut. The general arrangements were in the hands of Hon. Stewart L. Woodford. Ex-Governor Long of Mass., Colonel Vilas, Rev. Dr. Uphur, Mark Twain, Gen. Horace Porter and Senator Miller of California were among the guests. The large dining hall was crowded. Senator Miller, in reply to a toast of "The Cradle of the Commonwealth," said that the Commonwealth founded by the Pilgrim Fathers was a self-rocking cradle. It was due to an exodus as important to the evolution of manhood and freedom as was that led by Moses.

Mark Twain responded to the toast of "Woman." He said: The toast includes the sex universally. It is to woman comprehensively whosoever she may be found. Let us consider her ways. First comes the matter of dress. This is a most important consideration and must be disposed of before we can intelligently proceed to examine the profound depths of the theme. For a text, let us take the dress of antipodal types—the savage woman of Central Africa and the cultivated daughter of our high modern civilization. Among the Faus (a great negro tribe) a woman when dressed for home or to go out shopping or calling doesn't wear anything at all but just her complexion. That is her entire outfit. It is the lightest costume in the world, but is made of the darkest material. It has often been mistaken for mourning. It is the trimmest and neatest and gracefulest costume that is now in fashion. It wears well and is fast color; doesn't show dirt; you don't have to send it down town to wash and have some of it come back scorched with a flat-iron and some of it petrified with starch, and some of it chewed by the calf, and some of it rotted with acids, and some of it exchanged for other customer's things that haven't any virtue but holiness, and ten-twelfths of the pieces over charged for, and the rest of the dozen mislaid; and it always fits; it is the perfection of a fit, and it is the handiest dress in the whole realm of fashion. It is always ready, always done up. When you call upon a fair lady and send up your card the hired girl never says: "Please take a seat, Madame is dressing. She'll be down in three-quarters of an hour." "No, Madame is always dressed, always ready to receive, and before you can get the door mat before your eyes she is in your midst. Then again the Fan ladies don't go to church to see what each other has got on, and they don't go back home and describe and slander it. Curiously enough she finds a point of contact with the daughter of civilization and high fashion who often has "nothing to wear;" and thus these widely separated types of sex meet upon common ground. Yes, such is the Fan woman as she appears in her unostentatious every-day toilet, but on state occasions she is more dressy. At a banquet she wears bracelets, at a lecture she wears earrings and at a ball she wears stockings, and with true feminine fondness for display she wears them on her arms; at a funeral she wears a jacket of tar, and at a wedding the bride who can afford it puts on pantaloons. Thus the dark child of savagery and the fair daughter of civilization meet once more on common ground, and these two touches of nature make their whole world kin. Now we consider the dress of our other type. A large part of the daughter of civilization is dress, as it should be. Some civilized women would lose half their charm without dress, and some would lose all of it. A daughter of modern civilization dressed at her utmost best is a marvel of exquisite and beautiful art and expense; all the lands, all the climates and all the arts are laid tribute to furnish it. Her linen is from Belfast, her robe is from Paris, her lace is from Venice, or Spain or France; her feathers are from the remote regions of Southern Africa; her furs are from the remote home of the iceberg and the aurora; her fan is from Japan, her bracelets from Brazil, her bracelets from California, her pearls from Ceylon, her cameos from Rome. She has gems and trinkets from buried Pompeii, and others that graced ancient Egyptian forms that have been dust and ashes for 40 centuries; her watch is from Geneva, her card case is from China, her hair is from—I don't know where her hair is from—never could find out—that is, her other hair, her Sunday hair; I don't mean the hair she goes to bed with. Why, you ought to know the hair I mean. It is that which she calls a switch and which resembles a switch as much as it resembles a brickbat or a shot-gun, or any other thing which you correct people with. It's that thing which she twists and then coils around and around her head, bee-hive fashion, and then tucks the end in under the hive and harpoons it fast with a hair pin. And that reminds me of a trifle. Anyone you want to you can glance around the carpet of a Pullman car and go and pick up a hair-pin; but not to save your life can you get any woman in that car to acknowledge that hair-pin. Now isn't that strange? But it's true. The woman who had never swerved from east-iron veracity and fidelity in her life will, when confronted with this test, deny her hair-pin. She will deny that hair-pin before a hundred witnesses. I have stupidly got into more trouble and more hot water trying to hunt up the owner of a hair-pin in a Pullman car than by any other indiscretion of my life. Well, you see what the daughter of civilization is when she is dressed, and you have seen what the daughter of savagery is when she isn't. Such is woman as to costume. * * * I have introduced my subject, and if I had till next Forefather's Day I am satisfied that I could not discuss it adequately as the noble theme deserves; but as the matter stands now, let us finish as we began and say without jesting, but with all sincerity, "Woman: God bless her."

Successful Observations of the Transit of Venus.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.

Prof. Young of Princeton College gives the result, as far as ascertained, of the recent observations throughout the country of the transit of Venus. He says they were successful beyond expectations. Returns from 40 home stations and 10 foreign stations, show that at 34 of these the third and fourth contacts were observed, and at 24 the first and second. At Santiago, Chili, both the American and Belgian parties were entirely successful in all their observations.

A Gory Spectacle—The Body of Man Found in a Trunk.

CHICAGO, Dec. 23.

A Galesburg special says: Last evening a heavy trunk fell from the top of a truck and burst open, disclosing the gory body of a man 30 years old with the throat cut from ear to ear. A man on the train was discovered holding a cheek tallying with that on the trunk. He was detained, but refused to talk. The trunk was checked from Chicago. The body was not decomposed, but horribly bloody.

The Passion Play.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.

A number of distinguished clergymen and laymen met in the Mayor's office this afternoon to protest against the production of the "Passion Play" in this city. They were present by invitation of the Mayor, who was desirous of hearing what they had to say in opposition to the proposed exhibition. After an interchange of views, further hearing was adjourned until Tuesday.

Forefathers' Day.

PLYMOUTH, Mass., Dec. 22.

Forefathers' day is a general holiday here, and was ushered in by a display of flags, salutes and ringing of bells. The Plymouth band, with the Standard Guards and Collingwood Post, G. A. R., marched to Pilgrims' Hall, where invited guests were received. The march was then resumed to the rock on which the Pilgrims landed, where a volley was fired by the military escort and those present sang the hymn "America."

The President Sustained.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.

The presentation in the cabinet yesterday of the correspondence between the President, Brewster, Bliss and Marshal Henry revealed to the friends of the deposed marshal that they had no grounds for making a fight, and the confirmation of Henry's successor was not opposed. Neglect of duty was one of the serious charges, and it was fully sustained.

A Petroleum Blaze.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.

A dispatch from Exter, England, says an explosion occurred at the Thomas Petroleum Works this morning, causing a great fire, which has already destroyed several business buildings and adjoining houses and is still burning fiercely. Over 60,000 gallons of burning oil ran into the river, lighting up the shores on both sides. The shipping is threatened.

Want the Streets Cleaned.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.

The Grand Jury to-day made a presentment against the Cleaning Bureau. It is insisted that the streets be thoroughly cleaned during the existence of the present thaw, before ice and snow again make cleaning impossible.

Fun in the House.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.

In the House, during roll-call on adjournment, White (Ky.) repeatedly interrupted with points of order, and the Speaker pro tem (Page) finally refused to recognize him, causing much merriment.

General Sherman and the Presidency—He Thinks It Is Hell.

CHICAGO, Dec. 23.

General Sherman, being accused of having a Presidential bee in his bonnet, was recently interviewed upon the subject and thus declared himself: "You see I cannot be fool enough to decline what is not offered. But why do I want to turn from a prospect of rest and peace, at least for a period of years, to the delusion of four years in an office that is just hell? That's what it is—it is hell! What did Gen. Harrison get out of it? Nothing but a month of misery. What did General Taylor get out of it? Twelve months of misery. What did Grant get out of it? Do I want to resign this competence Congress has bestowed on me for four years of hell? What did Hayes get out of the Presidency? What did Garfield? Take them all within your memory—nothing but worry, trouble and misunderstanding.

Said-Bagging and Robbery.

CHICAGO, Dec. 23.

So general is the complaint of said-bagging and robbery in the streets at night, and so fast is the crime growing, that the Lumberman's Exchange, aroused by the fact that one of their members has been attacked, robbed and left senseless on the street, offer a reward of $500 for the perpetrator of the crime in a document which sharply criticizes the city government for its laxness. Since the first of December 17 cases of this sort are on record and probably many have been missed.

Another Victim of Hum.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.

A man supposed by letters from prominent business men found on his body to be Col. D. C. Cox of Washington, and formerly a well known Ohio politician and a man who has held several prominent official positions, walked into the river at the foot of Monroe street this morning, and was drowned. He was intoxicated at the time, and though pulled out soon after sinking, efforts to resuscitate him were unavailing.

Imprisoned for Seditious Language.

SLIGO, Dec. 23.

A well known nationalist and ex-suspect, has been remanded for a week on a charge of using seditious language at a meeting of the National League. The prisoner, during a speech said the gallows were reeking with the blood of innocent people condemned by drunken juries and partisan judges.

Mutinous Mexicans.

CHICAGO, Dec. 23.

A Matamoros (Mexico) special says: Forty soldiers of infantry mutinied at Tampico and after a desperate fight with the guard they escaped. Captain Burgos was killed and one Lieutenant and several soldiers wounded. Troops pursued the deserters and captured about half, who will be shot.

A Bigamist Pleads Guilty.

BROOKLYN, Dec. 22.

Wm. G. Russell was brought into court to face three wives and three other women to whom he was engaged. As his second victim walked toward the witness stand the accused sprang to his feet and pleaded guilty.

Don't Want to be Watched.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23.

The Citizens' Committee has asked the Police Commissioners to stop espionage upon their quarters by detectives suspected of collusion with criminals, pending the present investigation.

The People's Protest.

ROME, Dec. 22.

There have been demonstrations at South Milan and Turin in protest against the execution of Overdank. Several arrests have been made and the Government has sent severe orders to prefects to suppress demonstrations.

Railroad Accident.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Dec. 23.

A passenger train from New York on the New York & New Haven railroad ran into a switch engine here and derailed a smoker and passenger car, smashing both locomotives. Several passengers were badly injured.

Privately Hanged.

STARKVILLE, Miss., Dec. 22.

F. L. Jones, who murdered Thos. J. Jones in July last, was privately hanged at Louisville, Miss., in the jail yard this afternoon.

The Czar's Secret Enemies.

LYONS, Dec. 23.

An examination of papers found in Prince Krapotkin's residence reveals ugly facts, as they concern even the relatives of the Czar.

A Few Letters Saved.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.

Postmaster Pearson has received information that there were saved from the burned mails 443 letters from England for San Francisco.

A Lucky Lightning Jabber.

MONTREAL, Dec. 22.

W. C. Anderson, a telegrapher, inherits $750,000 from his uncle in Scotland.

De Long's Remains.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 23.

Lieutenant Hooker telegraphs from Yakutsk that he has arrived there with the bodies of De Long and his companions.

New Ireland in America.

LONDON, Dec. 23.

Davitt, in a speech at Bermondsey, said emigration was no cure for discontent in Ireland. A system of public works and enterprises, he said, would be far more creditable to English statesmen than forcing thousands into the work-house and then compelling them to quit the country; but if during the Winter and Spring 50,000 families would quit Ireland they would go to swell the ranks of the New Ireland which was growing beyond the Atlantic, where they would be trained in Republican ideas. From his knowledge of the New Ireland in America he could tell Lord Derby that English statesmen before long would have to take into account the Irish element in America in the settlement of the Irish question.

WESTERN TELEGRAMS

Senator Fair Willing to do the Right Thing.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 22.

At an executive session of the Stock Exchange to-day, Joseph Marks said that he had been authorized by Senator James G. Fair to make the following proposition: That he (Senator Fair) is willing to assist the committee in investigating the affairs of all companies under his control, and also to meet them and listen to any suggestions that they may make about the working of the mines under his management, and if any work that they suggest can be shown to be of benefit to stockholders, he will assist them in carrying out such work.

Fatal Powder Explosion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 23.

The latest reports from the powder explosion near Berkeley are to the effect that in addition to one Chinaman being killed and one seriously injured, a white man named Thorn was so badly injured that he has since died.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES.

—A bill has been proposed in Congress to pay the transcontinental railroads for army transportation at the rate of two cents a mile for passengers and one cent a mile for freight.

—At Dublin yesterday all the witnesses in connection with the Phoenix Park murders were examined and instructed to attend to-day at Kilmarnock jail to see if they could identify Westgate as one of the murderers.

—The bill introduced in Congress to permit the construction of a wagon bridge between Omaha and Council Bluffs is supported by the merchants of the latter city, but a hard fight is being made by the Union Pacific, which has a monopoly of car ferryage. The estimated cost of the work is $3,000,000.

HOLIDAY TREAT

During the holiday times it is eminently fit and proper that we drive full care away by the prudent use of the "goods the gods provide," that we may be better fitted, both mentally and physically, for the dull routine of another year's business. Messrs. E. Chielovich & Co. of the Wine House on Commercial Row have selected, as their holiday treat to the generous people of Reno and vicinity in return for a liberal patronage, a very fine lot of goods, which have been marked down to the lowest prices that they might be in reach of all. Among other things notice their finest of imported port wine, Tenterian, at $2 per gal.; finest domestic port wine, $1.90 per gal.; finest sweet muscat wine, $1.50 per gal. This muscat wine is delightful and every man should buy some for his family. Pure apple cider 75c per gal., and all other goods by demi-john or case for family use at correspondingly low rates.

HOLIDAY GOODS.

PROCLAMATION

TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC.

Take Notice! Take Notice!

Take Notice!

Before deciding what purchase you will make for the Holiday season, call and see the magnificent line of presents now on display at I. Fredrick's Jewelry Establishment, where you can obtain goods both useful and ornamental in the line of Pins, Rings and Neck Chains of the latest designs and patterns; Lockets, Ear-rings and Bangles; Ladies' and Gents' Watches and Chains—solid gold or silver and nickel-plated. My silver-plated goods, consisting of Fine Water Pitchers, Toilet Sets and other useful as well as ornamental articles of Silverware too numerous to mention, are of the best quality and the latest and most exquisite designs that could be purchased in the market. I will sell during the Holidays at Prices Lower Than Ever and to suit the present depressed state of times. The Rich as well as the Poor can be suited at my establishment. My past reputation for Fair Dealing and Low Prices, and my long experience in selecting none but the best quality of goods, I will endeavor to maintain in the future. Special Attention paid to repairing Watches and Jewelry at the Lowest Possible Rates, and All Work Intrusted to Me Guaranteed.

I. FREDRICK, Commercial Row, Reno, Nevada, at Osburn & Shoe-maker's drug store. 11d

To the General Public. Something that should be read by all consumers of groceries, etc. On the 1st of January, 1884, I propose to place my business on a cash basis, which will enable me to supply those who will give me their patronage with the best quality of goods at much lower prices than they have heretofore been paying. It is a plain fact that the credit system, as carried on by business houses generally compels those who do pay to make up the losses occasioned by those who do not fulfill their obligations. I am aware that Cash vs. Credit has been a theme of discussion these many years; but those who pay their bills know that the theory is perfect, and I shall offer goods at such prices that those who shall trade with me shall never regret that they assisted in reducing the theory to practice. The new plan will enable me to increase my large and varied stock. I will transact business strictly in accordance with the cash system—pricing good with regard to quality—I will handle none of doubtful quality. Please call or send for a price list, which will be out Jan. 1, 1884. Respectfully, d22f
